To the Applicant [Recommended an outline of the procedure with any school-specific instruction]

[Form continues with requests for information that is usually asked for by the school. May want to include specific information not found on the common teacher evaluation form. This could be personal or academic attributes or course placement (honors-regular-remedial)]

[Some teacher evaluations for a particular student may vary depending upon the high school or type of high school for which the student is applying. This principal/school evaluation page, developed by each high school, will allow the middle school teacher the opportunity to individualize their recommendation, if needed, to each high school.]
