

ROOT BELIEFS

We Believe:

- † As Catholic educators we are committed to lead by the examples of Jesus's Teachings in our daily lives.
- † The partnership between student, parent, and teacher is essential to form the whole child.
- † Faculty, staff and administration will provide various ways of teaching and learning while embracing each student's individuality.
- † Students have the responsibility to be respectful while learning and interacting with others in a safe environment.
- † The parent's role is to assist and support in the students' educational process.
- † Teachers strive to provide a positive faith-filled environment, while embracing each student's individuality.
- † Success is a student who is proud and confident in what they have learned giving the student the ability to become a positive member of society.
